

THE GREEN DRAGON BOWMEN

Warwick Club Badge Achievement Scheme

Rules for Badge Claims

1. Only full Green Dragon Bowmen members are entitled to claim club badges
2. A club badge is awarded for shooting a Warwick round only. This consists of shooting 4 dozen arrows distances are as follows:-

Cub Warwick	2 dozen at 20 Yards, 2 dozen at 10 Yards
Junior Short Warwick	2 dozen at 30 Yards, 2 dozen at 20 Yards
Junior Warwick	2 dozen at 40 Yards, 2 dozen at 30 Yards
Short Warwick	2 dozen at 50 Yards, 2 dozen at 40 Yards
Warwick	2 dozen at 60 Yards, 2 dozen at 50 Yards (No Award Available)

3. The round must be completed in one session.
4. All archers will using the imperial method only - (9, 7, 5, 3, 1).
5. Your score can then be matched to the Warwick matrix and if your score is equal to or great than the required score the archer receives the coloured medal award that relates to the round shot:-

Examples

(If you (Junior Lady) shoot a Short Junior Warwick Round. You are shooting recurve and you score 201, you have achieved a Black Award.)

(If you (Senior Gent) shoot a Warwick Round. You are shooting recurve and you score 257, you have achieved a Blue Award.)

6. Badges will not be awarded for scores below, or level to, that for which a badge has already been awarded.
7. If an archer shoots more than one bow type, they will not be entitled to claim badges for each bow they shoot. Claims can only be made for the first qualifying score from any one bow type.
8. If an archer shoots a new qualifying score at a competition or another club's venue and wishes to claim a badge that score must first be handed to the GDB records officer.
9. All score sheets handed in for badge claim purposes must be signed by the archer and countersigned by someone who witnessed the round, or a target captain.
10. An archer may not claim a badge for a score for which the GDB records officer has no record of.
11. If a member loses a medal, they can purchase a replacement from the club, providing the records officer verifies the award. The fee for a replacement badge is £5.00.
